

Research Participants Wanted

We're currently looking for youth aged 14-18 and parents/caregivers of youth to participate in online focus groups where we will ask you about your experiences and perspectives of intersectional approaches to youth mental health and wellness in communities. Focus groups will be composed of 8-10 participants all from diverse backgrounds. Focus groups will last 1.5-2 hours. You will be compensated at a rate of $25/hr.

Intersectional Approaches to Youth Mental Health and Wellness in Communities

We need participants who identify as

- LGBTQ+
- A visible minority
- Girls
- Disabled
- Belonging to a low-income household

We need participants who live/go to school in

- Saddle Ridge area
- Huntington Hills area
- Forest Lawn area
- Shawnessy area

To find out more and to register, contact

youthhealth@ucalgary.ca

